Most renters policies in New Jersey include the following common coverages:

PERSONAL PROPERTY (Coverage C)	pays if your personal property is damaged or destroyed by a covered loss.
LOSS OF USE (Coverage D)	pays your additional living expenses (costs over the normal amount for housing, food, and other essential expenses) if you must temporarily move because damage to your rental from a covered loss renders it uninhabitable.
PERSONAL LIABILITY (Coverage E)	pays to defend you in court against certain lawsuits and provides coverage if you are found legally responsible for someone else's injury or property damage.
MEDICAL PAYMENTS TO OTHERS (Coverage F)	pays medical bills of people hurt on your property. It might also pay for some injuries that happen away from your rental, such as your dog biting someone at the park.

Policy Features:

- Companies may exclude coverage for certain losses. Even the most comprehensive policy will exclude certain types of damage.
- All policies include an all-peril deductible. The deductible is the portion for which you are responsible on a covered property loss.
- Some policies may include a separate, optional wind/hail deductible and/or a mandatory or optional hurricane deductible.
- Companies may offer optional coverages that include home computer coverage and scheduled personal property such as jewelry.
