Spencer Heywood
100 Ida Seals Dr 112
Clinton, NJ 08809

Dear Spencer,

We are delighted to offer you the position of Citizens Teller at Citizens Bank, N.A. based in Clinton, NJ. Congratulations on your offer!

In this role, you will be reporting to Mario Riccardi. Your tentative start date will be September 16, 2024. We will confirm your start date upon both your acceptance of this offer and successfully completing the pre-employment criteria detailed below.

We recognize our journey to become a top performing organization is dependent on the talent we attract. We are excited to see how your experiences and skills will help our customers, colleagues and communities.

We take pride in our comprehensive compensation and benefits package and are pleased to offer you the following:

Compensation

You will be paid an hourly rate of $22.00 to be paid weekly on Fridays. You will be eligible for overtime compensation at a rate 1.5 times your regular rate of pay for any hours worked in excess of 40 hours per week, unless otherwise required by law. Your overtime rate may be adjusted to reflect additional compensation if necessary. Your standard workweek will consist of 40 hours per week, and you will need prior supervisor approval before working any hours that are in excess of your standard work hours.

All compensation is subject to tax and other applicable withholdings.

Business Line Incentive

You will be eligible to participate in the incentive plan applicable to your business unit, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in such plan. Please ask your manager for a copy of the plan. Citizens reserves the right to change the rules of any compensation plan or program or to cancel any such plan or program at any time without prior notice, in its sole and absolute discretion.

Benefits

You will be eligible for benefits, including paid time off, which will be subject to the provisions in the plan documents and Human Resources policies applicable to Citizens employees as may be amended from time to time.

You will be eligible for benefits the first day of the month following your date of hire and you will have 31 days from your date of hire to enroll in the Health and Welfare benefits.

- Full time 30 to 40 hours - Benefits include but are not limited to medical, dental, vision, disability, accident and life insurance coverage and CFG 401(k) Retirement Savings Plan.
- Part time 20 to 29 hours - Benefits include but are not limited to medical, dental, vision, accident and life insurance coverage and CFG 401(k) Retirement Savings Plan.

Offer Letter Detail Addendum

Here at Citizens Bank, N.A., we believe in transparency and protecting customers and colleagues. Below outlines the specifics of your employment with us. Please read the information provided carefully as it includes important details about your role.

By accepting this offer of employment, you agree to the following:

Authorization to Work

- This offer is contingent upon your ability to provide documents which prove your identity and demonstrate your authorization to work in the United States, in compliance with the Immigration Reform Act. A list of acceptable documentation will be provided. Please be prepared to provide this information on your first day of employment. Federal law requires that, if this documentation is not provided within 3 business days of your Start Date, you will be removed from the payroll.

Background Check

- You will receive an email within 48 hours of accepting this offer electronically to initiate the background check process.
- Within 24 hours complete the Authorization to Obtain Consumer Reports and Investigative Consumer Reports, which will require you to provide personal information as part of your online applicant profile. Completing these actions authorizes us to start the background check process.
- The authorization allows Citizens to perform, in its sole discretion, and as it pertains to the role this initial credit, motor vehicle record, public record, prior employment verification, and criminal check prior to making a determination to finalize an offer of employment and your agreement that these checks may be conducted by Citizens on a periodic basis for employment purposes.
- This offer is contingent on the results of the background check being satisfactory to Citizens, as well as your successful completion of all facets of Citizens pre-employment screening process, which may include, among other things, Citizens receipt of satisfactory references. In addition, if at the time of your hire, a public health emergency prevents you from submitting your fingerprints for a comprehensive background check, you shall be required to undergo a subsequent background check. Your continued employment will be contingent upon your successful completion of that check.

Non-solicitation

- During your employment and for a period of 365 days following the termination of employment for any reason, you will not directly or indirectly solicit (through any person, corporation, partnership or other business entity of any kind), recruit, induce, entice, influence, encourage, or assist in soliciting or hiring, any person who is employed during such period by Citizens or its affiliates; nor will you directly or indirectly induce any such person to: (a) terminate his or her employment or (b) accept employment with anyone other than Citizens or its affiliates.

- During your employment, including your Notice Period (as fully defined below), and for a period of 365 days following the termination of employment for any reason, you will not directly or indirectly (through any corporation, partnership or other business entity of any kind) solicit, assist in soliciting for business or entice away or in any manner attempt to persuade any client or customer or prospective client or customer to discontinue or diminish his, her or its relationship or prospective relationship with Citizens or its affiliates, or otherwise accept from and/or provide business to any person, corporation, partnership or other business entity of any kind other than Citizens or its affiliates. The restrictions in this paragraph will apply only: (1) to clients, customers or prospective clients or customers introduced to you by Citizens or its affiliates; or (2) any customer of Citizens or its affiliates (whether introduced to you through Citizens or its affiliates, or previously known to you) with whom you had contact during your employment by Citizens or any affiliate (including your Notice Period); or (3) any customer or client of Citizens or its affiliates whose identity as a client or potential client became known to you as a result of your employment at Citizens or its affiliates.
- Provisions of the preceding paragraphs are reasonable and that in the event you violate any of them, you acknowledge that Citizens or its affiliates will be subject to irreparable harm entitling it, in addition to statutory or common law remedies, to immediate injunctive or equitable relief. You hereby acknowledge that, but for these provisions, Citizens or its affiliates would not agree to the financial commitment contemplated by this letter agreement.
- Note: these non-solicit provisions do not apply to employees working in jurisdictions that limit or disallow the use of non-solicitation provisions. Citizens does not attempt to enforce non-solicit provisions unless it is permitted by local and state law. Please consult the Separation from Employment Policy upon commencement of employment for an updated list of jurisdictions where these non-solicit provisions do not apply.
- Employees working in Illinois may take up to fourteen (14) days to consider all the terms of this offer. You are advised to consult with an attorney before signing the Offer Letter to ensure you understand your obligations.

Notice of Intent

- Although you are employed at will, you agree that you will provide Citizens with 14 days prior written notice of your intent to leave the employ of Citizens ("Notice Period").
- Citizens, in its sole discretion, may decide to waive or reduce all or part of your notice period in accordance with business needs. As such, upon tendering notice of resignation, Citizens may elect to terminate the employment relationship effective upon the date that resignation was tendered or some other date within the notice period. You are not entitled to be paid for any portion of the notice period that Citizens elects to waive or reduce.
- During any accepted notice period, you will continue to be a colleague and you will continue to be entitled to receive your base salary (but not a bonus) for work performed during the notice period. Your fiduciary duties and other obligations as a colleague of Citizens will continue and you will cooperate in the transition of your responsibilities. Citizens will, however, have the right, in its sole discretion, to direct that you no longer come in to a Citizens work location.

Conditional Offer and Conditions of Employment

- Citizens has adopted a number of policies and procedures which you will have access to as a Citizens colleague. Please familiarize yourself with them in order to follow policy requirements.
- This offer letter will be governed and conformed in accordance with the laws of the state in which you will be based, without regard to its conflict of law's provisions. Should any provision of this offer letter be declared illegal or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction or by an arbitrator and should the provision be incapable of being modified to be enforceable, such provision will immediately become null and void, leaving the remainder of this offer letter in full force and effect.
- Citizens reserves the right to modify office/work-from-home and full-time, work-from-home positions, as business needs dictate. Also note that full-time, work-from-home roles may require in-office work, on occasion. Travel time to and from your home is generally not compensable time.
- There may be times where your internal job title could appear different than the title which is in this offer letter as internal titles could be used for administrative purposes.
- This offer is contingent upon your acceptance of Citizens' Mutual Agreement to Arbitrate Employment-Related Disputes, a copy of which is included in the pre-onboarding documents that will be available to you before your first day of work. If you would like a copy of this Agreement prior to your acceptance of this job, please let me know and I will send you a copy.
- In accepting this offer, you represent and warrant that you are not subject to any agreement with any current or prior employer or business (or any other entity or person) that would preclude you from fulfilling any of the duties or obligations you would have with Citizens or which would result in any additional payment from Citizens and you agree to immediately notify Citizens should you become aware of any such agreement. Citizens hereby directs you to comply with any and all contractual obligations, including but not limited to non-solicitation and other restrictive covenants, you have with any prior employers or third parties. You further recognize and agree that, to the extent you possess any confidential, proprietary or trade secret information of a third party, you may not and will not use or disclose such information in performing your duties for Citizens.
- This offer letter, along with its attachments, the documents referenced herein, and any and all policies adopted or enacted by Citizens, comprise the entire understanding between you and Citizens regarding the terms and conditions of your employment with Citizens, and fully supersede any and all prior verbal or written communications regarding those terms and conditions that are not outlined herein including but not limited to any representations related to any discretionary or performance-related award or incentive or other compensation. No verbal promises may be made by any officer or colleague of Citizens as to eligibility for or the guarantee of any receipt of any discretionary and/or performance-related awards in association with the Discretionary Award Program or any other types of incentive payments or awards.

At Will Employment

Your employment with Citizens is at-will, meaning that you may be terminated at any time with or without cause, and with or without notice, and nothing in this letter should be construed as creating a contract of employment for a fixed duration.
